Merry Christmas and a Happy 2012 to your house!
The Hoxie's are alive in well out in Fort Collins, and ready to become a family of 5! Benjamin James Hoxie is due on the 27th! So we are expecting him anytime now. As for our 2011 it has been by far the best year of our lives! Robyn and I are loving parenting, loving each other, and loving Jesus. Halle and Jack moved into to the same room in July and their relationship has taken off...it will be interesting seeing what baby brother adds to the dynamic. Robyn is loving balancing ministry and family, and I am loving seeing my wife and family live fully alive!
Jesus is so fun and we are so pumped to be in love with Him
Love -the Hoxies

We had a fantastically warm October, and tons of pumpkins.

Halle loves her dance class on Thursday's!
